

ALLIES ARE IN THE SACRED CITY

Admiral Bruce Reports To That Effect From Taku Aug. 19.

OFFICIALS HAVE FLED.

Boxers Arise at Canton and Serious Trouble Is Expected In That City.

LIST OF MISSIONARIES SLAIN.

Shanghai, Aug. 21.—[Special Cablegram]—It is reported here that the Japanese cavalry who went in pursuit of the empress and her court have over-taken them and now surround them. The empress has a vast quantity of imperial treasure in her possession.

London, Aug. 21.—[Special Cablegram]—Admiral Bruce reports from Taku under date of Aug. 19: "The allies are reported to have entered the 'Sacred City' and the 'Forbidden City' in Peking on Aug. 17.

SERIOUS TROUBLE AT CANTON.

London, Aug. 21.—Serious trouble is now threatened in the neighborhood of Canton. The Americans at Swatow, according to the Daily Chronicle's Shanghai correspondent have applied for a war ship in consequence of serious rioting, and the Hongkong correspondence of the Daily Mail says that a warship is on the way there now.

VICEROYS MAKE AN APPEAL.

Washington, Aug. 2.—[Special Telegram]—Minister Wu transmitted to the state department an appeal to the powers from the viceroys of the provinces of Nankin and Hunan that no violence be shown the rulers of China and that they be put to no personal inconveniences. They assure the powers that if the appeal is granted they will see that quiet and peace continue in their provinces and that foreigners are protected.

On the contrary if the persons of the Empress Dowager and the Emperor are not respected they fear they will not be able to keep the people in restraint and that anarchy and disorder is likely to follow.

It is said at the Chinese legation this morning that Li is awaiting an answer from the powers to his appeal and that commissioners be appointed to treat for peace and that as soon as replies are received he will start for Peking.

WILL ORDER CONGER HOME.

Wu said he had no news from Peking. The statement of the viceroys that anarchy would result if harm was done the emperor and empress causes no alarm. It is considered improbable that they will fall into the hands of the allied forces.

Wu was informed in answer to Chang's request for a peace commissioner that he was ready but was held pending reports from Chaffee and Conger and an exchange of views with the other powers.

Conger will be ordered home to recuperate. When he arrives he will be placed in close communication with the president who will have the benefit of his advice in carrying on negotiations.

Rockhill is due at Yokohama this afternoon. A telegram awaits him to proceed to Peking immediately to represent this country in the settlement of the trouble.

MESSAGE FROM CONGER.

Washington, Aug. 20.—[Special Telegram]—The department of state makes public the following extract from a telegram received last night from Minister Conger: "Peking, Aug. 20, via Chefoo, to secretary of state: Saved, Relief arrived today. Entered city with little trouble. Don't know where imperial family is. Except where has already been reported, all Americans are alive and well. A desperate effort was made last night to exterminate us. Mitchell, an American sailor, and a Russian and a Japanese were wounded and a German killed."

ANXIETY AT TIEN TSIN.

Tien Tsin, Aug. 21.—[Special Cablegram]—There is anxiety expressed here over the position of the allies at Peking as a large force of Chinese is appearing on the road and plain to Tien Tsin.

LEADERS ARE DECAPITATED.

Shanghai, Aug. 21.—Official Chinese advices from Peking say that Hsu Tung and Yi Lien Yuan, of the anti foreigner party, and Li Shan, a pro-foreigner, have been decapitated and that Yung Lu had been imprisoned by Prince Ching. It is added that the emperor and dowager empress are sixty miles west of Peking, under the restraint of Prince Tuan.

Li Hung Chang goes north immediately. Hsu Tung was a member of the imperial secretariat and president of the civil board. Li Shan was a member of the ministry of the imperial household. The identity of Yi Lien Yuan cannot be traced.

LIST OF MISSIONARIES SLAIN.

Fowler Sends Names of Victims of the Paoingtu Massacre.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—The state department received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated Chefoo, Aug. 15. It relates to the massacre of missionaries and others at Paoingtu, which has been referred to a number of times in the press dispatches, and has generally been conceded to have occurred on June 30. The first part of the dispatch is so badly mangled in transmission that it is impossible to make much out of it. The text is as follows:

"Chefoo, Received Aug. 15.—Secretary of State, Washington: Reported Aug. 13 all Presbyterian missionaries Paoingtu killed June 30; premises burned. Same (night?) Catholic mission. Rain stopped work. July 1 attacked American (board?). (Pitkin?) shot dead trying to keep gang out. Misses Morell, Gould taken. Boxer headquarters, killed. (Bagnall?) killed near (temple?) Cooper and Belgians fate uncertain. Officials had sent all home from yamen. All natives connected foreigners suffered like fate. Authority: Special messenger sent by Tientsin missionaries.

SITUATION STILL SERIOUS.

Evident That Chinese Will Continue to Struggle Against Allies.

London, Aug. 21, 4 a. m.—Rear Admiral Bruce's report of the continuation of fighting in Peking puts a more serious aspect on the Chinese situation than was generally expected here.

It appears effectually to dispose of all statements that the empress dowager had fled, although circumstantial accounts of her departure continue to come from Shanghai.

Despite defeat, the Chinese are apparently resolved to make a desperate struggle not only in their ancient capital, but also in other parts of the empire. Shang Chi Hsun, viceroy at Hankow, and Liu Kun Yi, viceroy at Nankin, according to advices from Shanghai, have threatened the consuls that if the person of the empress dowager is not respected they will withdraw from their present friendly attitude.

Gen. Grodekoff, Russian commander of the Amur government, reports to the Russian war office that Chinpan pass was captured Aug. 16 after a bloody battle, in which the Chinese suffered heavily, losing four or five guns. The Russian cavalry were in pursuit of the enemy.

WILL NOT ACCEPT BOHRMICH.

Milwaukee Populist Leaders Will Not Fuse If He Is Nominated.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 21.—Populist leaders here have decided they will not stand for Louis Bohmrich in case he is nominated for Governor by the Democrats. They are not sure they will fuse with the Democrats under any circumstances. Two years ago the Democrats tossed the Populists over and refused to fuse, and Populists have not forgotten the affront. They are especially bitter against Bohmrich, who helped defeat fusion in the Democratic convention.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 21.—John A. Aylward, city attorney of Madison, won in the Democratic county convention yesterday, and will in all probability be nominated at the Congressional convention at Watertown on Sept. 4.

CHICAGO SHOWS A BIG INCREASE

Official Census Returns Indicate That the Population is 1,698,575—Gains 54.44 Per Cent.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—The population of the city of Chicago, according to the official count of the returns of the twelfth census, is as follows:

Chicago City.....1890.....1,698,575
These figures show for the city as a whole an increase in population of 598,725, or 54.44 per cent from 1890 to 1900. The population in 1890 was 503,185, showing an increase of 596,665, or 118.58 per cent from 1880 to 1900. The wards vary in population from 11,795 in the Thirty-fifth to 90,145 in the Twenty-fourth.

RENEWAL OF METHODIST REVIVAL.

Willis W. Cooper of Kenosha, Wis., the new secretary of the Twentieth Century Revival Commission, has agreed to devote his whole time to the work without salary. This commission has undertaken to encourage the renewal of old-fashioned Methodist revivals throughout the country, and to bring about the conversion of two million people before the end of the year 1901.

T. W. GOLDIN and party are expected home today from their trip to the Yellowstone park and other places of interest on the way.

LOUIS G. BOHRMICH BY ACCLAMATION

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IN MILWAUKEE TOMORROW.

Anyone Who Wants a Place On the Ticket Can Have It For the Asking—Only Contest Is For Chairmanship of the State Committee—Names Mentioned.

Milwaukee, Aug. 21.—Indications are that anyone who wants a place on the democratic state ticket to be named to-morrow can have it for the asking. So far the positions have gone begging, no one except Attorney Louis G. Bohmrich of Kenosha and Milwaukee seeming to be willing to offer himself, and it is conceded he will head the ticket. There is little so far upon which to base any speculation as to probable nominations for other positions tomorrow. Nearly all of the 663 delegates to the convention are uninstructed.

BOHRMICH BY ACCLAMATION.

Mr. Bohmrich will undoubtedly be nominated for governor by acclamation. John Rosch of Menasha, who was endorsed for the gubernatorial nomination, has refused to allow his name to be considered.

As to the chairmanship of the state central committee the choice seems likely to fall to Ald. William H. Graebner, W. G. Bruce or J. W. Murphy. If the last named succeeds it must be by the votes of delegates from the interior of the state.

SOME NAMES MENTIONED.

Among the names casually mentioned for places on the state ticket below that of governor are F. B. Hoskins of Fond du Lac for lieutenant governor; Judge Amos Holgate of Marinette and George W. Lewis of Madison, recently deputy United States marshal of the Western district and chief bookkeeper in the secretary of state's department during the Peck administration for secretary of state; John Bodden of Horizon, August Bartz of Fall Creek and Mayor M. J. Hoven of Madison for state treasurer; W. A. Hayes, president of the Seventh ward Democratic club of Milwaukee and member of the law firm of Cummings, Hayes & Thiele, W. H. Frawley of Eau Claire and James M. Clancy of Stoutenot, for attorney general; E. B. McCoy of Sparta, for insurance commissioner; B. T. Potter of West Bend and D. W. Tobey of Superior for railroad commissioner; ex State Supt. O. E. Wells of Appleton, Supt. Karl Mathis of Wausau and Attorney James A. Sheridan of Milwaukee for superintendent of public instruction. Dane county, it is said, will work for a place on the ticket for Col. Bird, probably for lieutenant governor, or secretary of state.

YACHT RACING AT LAKE GENEVA, WIS.

Yesterday's Contest Was the Grandest and Prettiest Ever Sailed In the Middle West.

Geneva Lake, Wis., Aug. 21.—The first race of the big regatta was sailed yesterday afternoon and won by the Pine Lake boat, Adelyn, Porter's Mahoon finishing second. The St. Paul boat Attilu took first prize in the seventeen-foot class, with Pinchon's Neola second.

It was the grandest and prettiest race ever sailed in the middle West, and the Lake Geneva course proved itself almost an ideal one. The weather was fine, there was a stiff southwest breeze, and everything went off without a hitch. The start was beautiful, and the boats getting away well together. While maneuvering for position Mahoon broke her jib balyard, but the damage was repaired before the starting gun was fired.

BUFFALO BILL'S BOYS OUT ON A RAMPAGE

SHOWMEN AND CITIZENS WAR AT PRARIE DU CHIEN.

Policeman's Altercation With a Cowboy Starts the Trouble—Others Take Sides And a General Riot Is the Result—Governor Is Called Upon to Send Militia.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., Aug. 20.—The city was thrown into great excitement last night by a mob from Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, which was here for a performance. At one time the mob broke through the proportion of a riot and the whole city was in a panic, four hundred employees of the circus marching about and threatening to lynch a special policeman who had shot an artilleryman connected with the show, and finally when they could not find him, wrecking a saloon and demolishing his house.

The news of the shooting spread about the circus tent and soon a mob of several hundred men started on a hunt for Thomas Vavra, the special policeman. They went rushing about yelling, "Hey Rube!" "Hey Rube!" and brandishing revolvers.

MOB CHASED THE POLICEMAN.

They chased the unfortunate policeman down the street and he fired wounding a show man in the arm. He then sought refuge in a saloon and Marshal Linder and Policeman Merrill, who attempted to stop the progress of the mob were both seriously wounded by the mob.

The whole town was terrorized and some one at this time rang a riot call. Many citizens turned out, but they were powerless to check the mob, which forced its way into the saloon. Vavra escaped out of a rear door, and fled for his life.

Not finding him the mob vented its fury by demolishing the interior of the saloon and then, still unsatisfied, and totally beyond control, they started for Vavra's house, which they completely wrecked.

COL. COOY PACIFIED THEM.

Mayor Patzloff meanwhile appealed to Col. Cooy for help, and he came down town, finally pacified his men, got them in line and marched them back to the show grounds. They followed him, still however, muttering vengeance.

During the riot telegrams were sent to Gov. Scofield, asking for the militia. At midnight all was quiet and no further trouble is anticipated.

Special Policeman Vavra managed to conceal himself. If he had not evaded the mob he would undoubtedly have been killed.

NO ONE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

None of the men who were shot is seriously wounded.

The injured are Charles Lindner, city marshal, knocked insensible; John Merrill, night policeman, badly clubbed on the head; Charles Tryangle of Brooklyn, with Buffalo Bill's artillery, shot in the thigh; and Harry Cingmas of Denver, also with Buffalo Bill's artillery, shot in the arm.

The fight started in Stabin's saloon, near the show grounds. Vavra, a special policeman, finally interfered and shot Tryangle. Vavra was pursued through the streets by an infuriated mob of cowboys and rough riders and turned and shot Cingmas.

ONLY A BOSS TO HIS WORKMAN.

John R. McDonald, the contractor for the proposed New York tunnel for the rapid transit railroad, is about 55 years old and has made his fortune by hard work. It is said that he can get more work out of his men without urging them than any other man in New York, unless it is John D. Crimmins, the millionaire railroad builder. One day last spring, at Jerome park, where Mr. McDonald is doing the greatest work of his life except the tunnel contract, a visitor noticed a square man, covered with mud and built like a peg top, with wide spreading shoulders, talking to the foreman. "Say," he asked of a laborer, "is that Mr. McDonald, the famous contractor, who is going to build the rapid transit tunnel?" "Naw!" answered the workman. "He ain't no famous contractor. That's Jack McDonald, our boss."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

PRICES FOR OLD VIOLINS.

At the sale of old violins from the collection of Mr. Pomeroy of Clifton last week, although the aggregate was large, there was none of those £2,000 violins, upon the high value of which the fiddler collector huffs himself, says London Truth. Indeed, the gem of the collection, a J. B. Guadagnini, with a silver-mounted bow, went for £160, while a Nicolas Lupot, dated 1796, with Hill & Son's guarantee, fetched only £60. The viola by Viuillaume, which carried off the prize at the Paris exhibition of 1867, fetched only £29, and a violin by Carl Tononi £67. All these, beyond much question, were genuine instruments, but a Peter Guarnerius, which fetched only £28, was, although genuine, not complete, the belly and head, which years ago had met with an accident, not being original.

FORCE DREWET TO RETIRE.

DEATH OF A BELOIT POINEER.

H. H. Huzman a Rock County Resident Since 1845

Beloit, Wis., Aug. 21.—Hans H. Huzman, an early settler, died Sunday at his farm, in the town of Avon, at the age of 94 years. Mr. Huzman came to Rock county from Norway in 1845 and settled on a farm in the town of Newark, where he has since resided until a year and a half ago, when he took up his residence with his son in law, Rev. J. A. Bergh, pastor of the Lutheran church, at Luther Valley, a few miles from his home-stead.

Until within the past few months he has enjoyed good health and was as active and bright as the natural infirmities of old age would permit. He leaves surviving him one son, Hulver, who resides on the old homestead in Newark, three daughters, Mrs. Ole P. Gaarder of Orfordville, Mrs. Hans P. Gaarder of Kenosha, Ia., and Mrs. J. A. Bergh of Luther Valley.

FLY TO MICHIGAN FROM HAY FEVER

National Association to Meet at Marquette—Expected That 500 Sufferers Will Attend.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 21.—For the third consecutive year this city is the headquarters for the Western Hay Fever association. The members are beginning to arrive and it is expected that before the end of next week there will be 400 or 500 in the city. President W. A. Roe and Chairman Col. C. T. Johnstone of the Location and Transportation committee, both of Louisville, Ky., have been here for several days past. Secretary W. F. Clark of Louisville and Treasurer M. D. Goodman will arrive early next week.

Chairman Johnstone expects to see 800 members of the association in the city before the end of the first week in September. Many railroads are offering very reasonable fares and by a rebate agreement every hay feverite is assured a fare as low as any rate that might be procured from his or her home to Petoskey, Mich.

Marquette is better able to take care of the visitors this year than ever before and, although the city is already filled with reporters and tourists, it is anticipated that all comers will be accommodated without much difficulty.

HEIRRESS TO MANY FORTUNES.

Mrs. Eliza Bailey, the daughter of old Jacob Lorillard, died the other day and left her fortune of more than a million dollars to her granddaughter, little Miss Aletta Natalie Lorillard Bailey. In her own right Miss Bailey, who is now only 12 years old, is sole heir to an estate worth at least $3,000,000. She is the only daughter of Mrs. Aletta R. Bailey of Madison avenue, New York. Her father died three years ago leaving his large fortune in trust for her daughter. It is said that the little girl is heir-expectant to several more large fortunes and that before she comes of age she is likely to be the richest young woman in the country. Just now little Miss Bailey is skipping the rope and playing with the chickens up at the Bailey country place at Yonkers. She has golden hair and blue eyes and promises to be a great beauty.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE NOW PAID.

New York Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean: The Brooklyn bridge, which was opened to traffic on May 24, 1883, just about paid expenses up to the date of consolidation, January 1, 1898. During that period from May 24, 1883, to January 1, 1898, the receipts were $17,727,890.56, and the expenses $18,151,301.14, not including interest on bonds. Since the substitution in part of electricity for cables as the motive power on the bridge, and the leases made to the railway lines, the opinion has been general that the bridge receipts would fall off. The report made by the commissioner of bridges on June 15 shows that this opinion was without substantial basis, and that the bridge is now—everything considered—paying very well, the profit last year having been $150,000, or at the rate of $400 a day.

Rev. R. C. DENISON, who has been attending the assembly at Chautauque lake returned home yesterday to officiate at the funeral of the late Mrs. Cuckow. He leaves today for Lake Kegonsa where his family are in camp.

CYCLONE WRECKS MANY BUILDINGS

Dreadful Storm Sweeps Across Sheboygan Destroying Homes.

LOSS IS OVER $300,000

Vast Damage Done to Fruit And Crops In Northern Part of the State.

NO LOSS OF LIFE REPORTED.

Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 21.—Two hundred buildings were wrecked by a tornado which cut a path through the city shortly after noon yesterday, the property loss being estimated at more than $300,000. Although it was the usual dinner hour and hundreds of residents were in their homes when the storm broke, not one fatality is reported and no one was seriously injured.

In Path of the Storm. Of the buildings in the path of the storm fully fifty were demolished beyond the hope of repair and 150 more were twisted about, unroofed or caved in by the flying timbers. Factories, business blocks and residences alike went down before the wind, while a brewery and a church were among the structures suffering serious damage.

The horses belonging to a circus showing here were stampeded and ran wildly through the streets adding to the panic of the terror stricken residents.

The storm clouds when gathering appeared so menacing that the people became fearful of a tornado and fled from their houses to the streets just in time. The path of the storm was two blocks wide and apparently about two miles in length. In this distance not a building escaped uninjured.

CITY IS LEFT IN DARKNESS.

The electric light plant was disabled and last night the city was in darkness. The street car system is also tied up and the trolley wires were torn down and arc lights, telephones, and street car line poles are down in the wake of the storm. The cloud came up about 12 o'clock and in a short time out of it rolled a black, greenish, swirling mass, which leaped to earth like a long serpent and snatched everything in its way. It passed in a thrice and but few can tell how it happened.

IT WAS INTENSELY HOT.

The clouds were banking up all morning and by noon it had become so dark that it was necessary to have lights in the buildings to see. It was intensely hot. A few minutes before 1 o'clock the storm broke. People were thrown down in the streets and fences and signs hurled hundreds of feet. The storm raged for some minutes and passed off to the south.

The storm started in the western part of the city near the graveyard and swept down to the south side and off into the lake.

GREAT DAMAGE AT KENOSHA.

Kenosha, Aug. 20.—Reports from all parts of the county today show that great damage was done by the storm which struck Kenosha Sunday. The loss to the farmers in the county cannot be estimated. In many places the corn crop has been totally destroyed. In some instances the corn was beaten down by the fierce gale of wind which accompanied the rainstorm, but in others the corn was cut to pieces by the hail.

CLOUD BURST AT GREEN BAY.

Green Bay, Wis., Aug. 20.—A cloud burst struck here yesterday afternoon, the fall of rain being over one and one-half inches in half an hour. Much damage is reported to crops. Telephone and telegraph wires were torn down. Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and other Northern Wisconsin towns report serious damage from wind and hail by the same storm.

SENATOR STEWART DESERTS BRYAN

The Veteran State of Nevada Silver Leader Announces His Purpose to Vote for McKinley.

New York, Aug. 21.—Another pillar of the crumbling free silver structure in the west has fallen. Senator William M. Stewart, who for years has held aloof from the republicans in congress because of his radical views on the coinage question, and who was one of the leaders of the movement of silver republicans to the support of William J. Bryan in 1896 today made the announcement that he has decided to vote for the re-election of President McKinley.

In making public his change of policy Senator Stewart gives a remarkably clear statement of the obligation resting upon the United States to maintain its authority in the Philippines, charges the so-called anti-imperialists with disloyalty to the government and expresses the opinion that the issue thus raised is paramount in this campaign.

Ed. Ehle, of Chicago is spending a week in the city. He made the trip from Chicago here by the way of Milwaukee on his wheel.

The concert by the Edgerton Band, assisted by local talent, in the park Saturday evening was an unqualified success. Over a thousand persons from the village and surrounding country listened with pleasure to the delightful program presented by Edgerton's musical organization and expressed their appreciation by frequent and hearty applause. The band in its renditions showed thorough drill and fine taste in execution. The selections and melody that were the features in the program, were of a high class and in phrasing and tone evidenced artistic culture on the part of both soloists and accompaniment.

Monday evening at 8:30 a windstorm, accompanied by vivid thunder and lightning, struck this village, but fortunately but little damage resulted. The large windmill of the railroad company was wrecked. During the storm an alarm of fire at the house of C. H. Goodrich was given, but it fortunately proved to be a false alarm.

French President Scared.

Paris, Aug. 21.—While President Loubet was on his way to the ceremonies at the Paris exposition today a drunken waiter named Jacques Mara broke through the line of cuirassiers surrounding the presidential carriage and approached its door. There was a moment of intense excitement, but the man only threw an envelope into the vehicle. It contained a picture of his niece. The man's action was simply the result of a drink-deranged mind.

Cleanest in America.

The Lackawanna Railroad is the cleanest railroad in America. Even though it cared little for the comfort of its passengers, which it does, it probably would burn hard coal, for the reason that it owns the most extensive anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, and it is cheaper for it to burn hard coal, which makes no smoke, than soft. At any rate, there is no smoke from its locomotives. It is built for the most part through the mountains where rock is the material easiest of access, and its road bed for that reason is rock ballasted. There is therefore no dust. These two things are of unusual interest to the traveler by the line, for the reason that on no other road in the United States is there stronger incentive to keep one's eyes upon the passing scene. It is said of this line truthfully that every mile is picturesque. It traverses the agricultural region of Western New York, the valley region of Central New York, the mountain region of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and every mile offers a view that is beautiful, interesting and entrancing. In point of comfort its passengers are particularly fortunate, for, in addition to there being no smoke or dust, the cars are roomy and scrupulously clean. Sleeping cars, parlor cars and dining cars offer all the conveniences and comforts of modern travel.

No one need suffer from Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

The Bitters is a sure cure for these, as well as for Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Flatulency, or Malaria, and Fever and Ague.

Ignacio Andrade Dead.
Caracas, Venezuela, Aug. 21.—Former President Ignacio Andrade, who was deposed from the presidency and succeeded by Cipriano Castro, the present incumbent, is dead.

Gen. Ignacio Andrade was a son of Gen. Jose Escalastico Andrade, one of Venezuela's famous figures. He lived in America some time and absorbed American ideas. He was a close friend of President Crespo.

He was known as an advocate of arbitration and was elected president of Venezuela with the understanding that his country should arbitrate whenever possible. At the time of his election he was fifty-eight years old.

Finds Lucy Parsons Guilty.
Chicago, Aug. 21.—Mrs. Lucy Parsons, leader of the Chicago anarchists, was fined $50 and costs by Justice Sabbath for disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and blocking the sidewalk. She appeared before the court in the role of a martyr and loudly affirmed her allegiance to the cause of the "reds."

But for her domineering attitude, she would have been discharged with a severe reprimand from the court.

NEGRO POET ROBBED.

Paul Lawrence Dunbar Loses His Valuable.

New York, Aug. 21.—Paul Lawrence Dunbar, the negro poet, reported to the police last night that he had been drugged and robbed recently.

Dunbar said he had been working hard during the early part of the night trying to pacify the negroes, who had been agitated about the west side riots, and was very tired. About midnight he started to go to the house in Ninth avenue where he was staying temporarily, and he met a negro named William Ricks. Ricks invited him into a saloon and advised him against going through West Thirty-seventh street, as, he said, it was dangerous.

He accepted Ricks' invitation. He then started on through Thirty-seventh street to Ninth avenue. This is all he remembers until 3 o'clock the following afternoon, when he awoke on the top floor of a building on West Thirty-seventh street. A family of negroes which he knew told him that he had been found unconscious in the hall and they had put him to bed.

As soon as Dunbar examined his pockets he found that he had been robbed. His diamond ring, a gold watch and chain, some money and some trinkets were missing. He thinks that "knockout" drops must have been used. Paul Lawrence Dunbar is known as a writer in magazines and as a poet. He has published several books of poems.

FARMERS ARE GATHERING.

Great Congress to Begin at Colorado Springs.

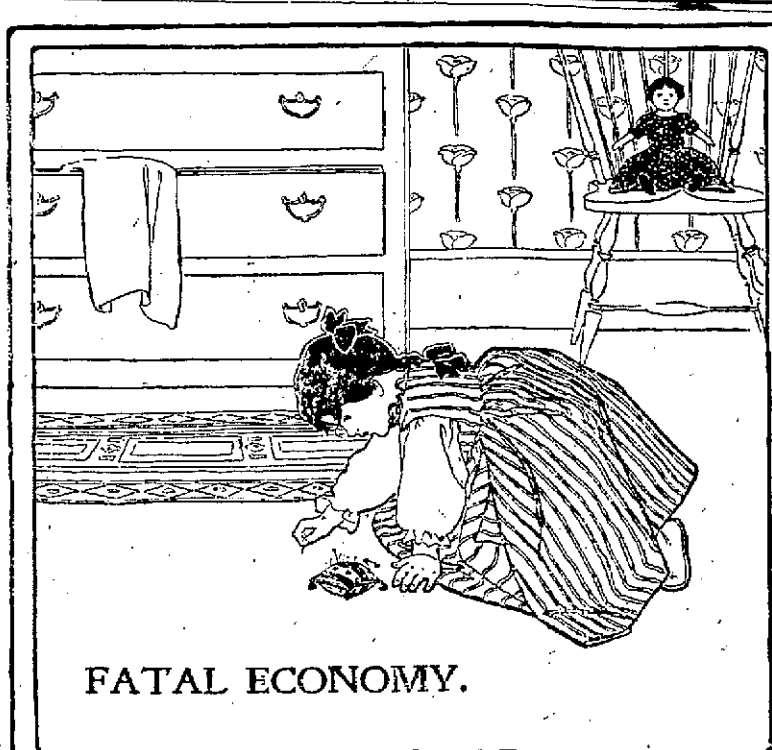

Denver, Aug. 21.—Several hundred delegates to the National Farmers' Congress, which will open in Colorado Springs tomorrow, arrived here today, and went on an excursion around the loop.

B. F. Clayton, former speaker of the house in Iowa, and a resident of Indianapolis, that state, is chairman of the work of arranging for what he thinks will be the most successful convention of the kind ever held.

"It looks now as if there would be 2,000 delegates present," said Mr. Clayton. "There will at any rate be more than 1,500 and that is a larger attendance than there has ever been at a National Farmers' Congress."

"In addition to the subject of pure food, which will very naturally be considered at length, there will be discussions of interest on trusts, the Nicaragua canal and free rural mail delivery. I have no doubt that the congress will take steps to urge that the rural free delivery system be spread as widely as possible."

FATAL ECONOMY.

VERY old maxim declares that it isn't economy to pick up pins; the time is worth more than the pins. Similarly it is not true economy to do without Ivory Soap; your health requires the daily removal of the bodily excretions which are discharged through the pores of the skin. These tiny mouths must be kept open, and they should be opened only with a pure soap.

PROVE ALL THINGS.

This Command is Easy to Fulfill in Janesville.

To win a wager an English Marquis stood on London bridge and offered for an hour British sovereigns ($5) for five shillings ($1.25). He could not find a customer. There are several good reasons why the ordinary mortal could not be induced to buy, but no reason can be given why Janesville people will not accept the following convincing proof about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this:

Mr. Thos. Pratt of 281 South Main St. says: "I doctored off and on for forty years, attempting to rid myself of backache, which came on by spells, very painful when at their height and even when somewhat allayed, the dull aching was sure to manifest itself if I overtaxed myself, caught cold or did any work which brought a strain on the muscles of the back. Often I have been so lame and sore that there were days I was confined to my room almost helpless, certainly unable to get up or down. Like a great many other people in Janesville I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Co.'s store, led to do so by the peculiar advertisement which riveted my attention. After taking a thorough course of the remedy I was able to go to the quarry and sling an eighteen pound hammer without showing any signs of a recurrence. If I am subjected to future attacks I know what remedy to employ."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Common sense use of "Orangeine" prevents and cures nearly all human ills.

Court and Clark streets or, before the 27th day of September, 1900, and the whole work shall be completed on or before the 1st day of December, 1900; failing in which the contractor shall pay to the city of Janesville, as liquidated damages, the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each and every day's delay in completing said work.

Directions to Bidders.
Each bidder must accompany his bid with a contract and bond, with two sureties, who shall be free holders of the state of Wisconsin, and shall justify as to their responsibility and by their several affidavits show that they are worth in the aggregate at least the amount of the entire contract price in property not by law exempt from execution. Surety companies approved by the Street Assessment Committee will be accepted in lieu of personal sureties.

Said contract and bond, with sureties, must be completely executed on the part of the contractor, with the exception of the signature on the part of the city.

This is a POSITIVE REQUIREMENT OF THE CHARTER AND MUST BE COMPLIED WITH. Bids failing to comply with the above requirement will not be considered.

Bidders must submit proposals to do the work according to the specifications, profiles, plans and details for each street, stating thereon prices respectively per square yard of brick pavement; per square yard of macadam pavement; per cubic yard for grading; per lineal foot for furnishing stone curbing in place; per lineal foot for furnishing combination curbing and gutter in place; per lineal foot for furnishing cement curbing in place; and per lineal foot for setting curbing so far as the same are applicable to said streets, under said specifications, profiles and plans.

The bids for the work and material on each of said streets will be canvassed separately and considered in the aggregate based on the estimated quantities named in the specifications and awarded as separate contracts on each of said streets. A bid and the accompanying contract and bond must be written on the blanks prepared by the undersigned for the purpose, and prices should be stated in writing and in figures. All bonds must have attached thereto internal revenue stamps to the amount of fifty cents.

All bids should be marked on the envelope, "Street Assessment Committee," with the name of the street marked thereon, on which such bid is made, and filed in the office of the Street Assessment Committee in the City Clerk's office in said city.

N.B.—Blanks for proposals and blank contract and bonds for each street will be furnished on application to the city clerk.

The bids, when the lowest ones, will be decided by the Street Assessment Committee. The said committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

SCHURZ ON BRYAN IN 1896.

Chicago Times-Herald: Carl Schurz

and Bourke Cockran in their tilt against imperialism and militarism windmills are swallowing something more than Bryan. They are gulping down their own words without the apology of a grimace.

In 1896 Mr. Schurz asserted that Mr.

Bryan's election would be at the cost of "the most violent and destructive crisis on record, and worse than this, at the price of something that has never been forfeited since this republic was born, for the preservation of which it should shed its last drop of blood—at the price of national honor."

And yet today Mr. Schurz is willing to shake hands with the man whose election meant national dishonor in 1896 and would mean international shame and disgrace in 1900.

Mr. Cockran was talking about Bryan's

"piquitous" and "revolutionary" proposal in 1896 to pack the supreme court to declare "laws to be constitutional which the constitution itself condemns." And yet he favors the election of Mr. Bryan today that he may prostitute

the supreme court and every other branch of the government to theories which every sense of national honor and security condemn.

The International Typographical

Union rescinded its action in endorsing the social democracy's presidential ticket. The passage of the resolution was a mistake that reconsideration does not wholly rectify. It showed a spirit that labor organizations should not exhibit. Socialism, even in the mildest form, is distasteful to the American people.

The populists announce that they will not accept L. G. Bohmrich as gubernatorial candidate, and as the democratic nomination will certainly go to the Kenosha man, the people will put up a ticket of their own.

Mr. Bryan must explain why his predictions in 1896 went wrong before he can expect people to seriously consider his predictions in 1900. Fine words better no parsnips, Colonel; the people want the facts.

John Chinaman will have to supply

his Uncle Sam with clean shirts for a long time to come if he works out the bill that is to be presented to him.

Mr. Bohmrich, of Kenosha, will Buck-leyize his democratic state convention at Milwaukee tomorrow afternoon.

Our trade with Spain is increasing rapidly. The Dons, evidently, do not "hold a grudge."

Hay fever victims are now either doing penance, or the northern part of the state.

Attend the caucuses tonight, republicans, and discharge your duty as good citizens.

Certainly, the democratic brethren are trust busters, but they'll never bust the Round Cotton Bale trust for the simple reason that Chairman Jones

of the Democratic National committee is

its president.

but sufficient reason that Chairman Jones

of the Democratic National committee is

its president.

A GIRL TRUSTED

By the Standard Oil Company to Bid in Property Worth $200,000.

New York Cor. Philadelphia Record:

By the aid of a woman who can keep a secret H. H. Rogers, the Standard

Oil magnate, has secured the property of the Atlas Tack company, which is located in Massachusetts and several other states. The woman is Miss K.

T. Harrison, Mr. Rogers' private secretary, and she twice bid in the property,

the first sale having been made void by a technical error, the price

both times being $200,000. The property was sold in Boston under foreclosure proceedings. It had been in the hands of a receiver for some time, and the State Street Trust company held the mortgage under which it was sold. When the first sale was made, on December 19, 1899, the property was sold to "K. T. Harrison, of New York," and the bidder was believed to be a man, acting for Mr. Rogers, who is said to hold bonds in the corporation.

But at yesterday's sale she was the only bidder, and it was found that a secret had been kept by a woman.

Questions were practically unavailing when applied to her. She was exceedingly annoyed when she was told that the transaction was known, and at first declined to admit that it had taken place. "Suppose it has," she said, finally. "What has that got to do with it? I did buy it. I was not acting as the Standard Oil's agent. I am Mr. Rogers' private secretary. I am annoyed that anything has been published about it. We didn't want it known. I have nothing further to say about it." And she hadn't. Mr. Rogers' business secrets are fast locked within the mind of the tall, brown-haired young woman, whom he trusts,

and there they are safe.

SOD HOUSE NO MORE.

Cheap Freight Rates Drive It Out of Kansas.

"There is one picturesque thing about the west which the cheap freight rates are rapidly driving out of existence. I mean the sod houses of Kansas," said D'Alvord M. Penwick, of Wichita, in the lobby of the St. James, to the Washington Post. "There are sod houses in other parts of the west of course, but I am only familiar with those of my own state. These structures are as strong and much cheaper than brick. The farmer cuts the sod for building purposes just as the sod is cut for transplanting grass. The buffalo grass, which grows in almost all the middle western states, is like a thick mat, and is very tough herbage.

The slabs of sod, about 15 by 24 inches and 4 inches thick, hold together like thick rolls of felt. They are laid in courses like the ordinary building

stone, and pressed closely together, and the roof is made of timbers and frequently thatched. The inside is then smoothed with native lime, which makes an excellent plaster. The coating of lime is sometimes applied outside also, but usually these sod houses present the natural dun color of the prairies in the winter. Sometimes the floor of the house is made by excavating a few feet and then tramping the ground solid with horses; otherwise, a regular wood floor is laid. The door and window frames are fitted in while building, as in stone houses. They only have one room, generally, but sometimes two or three rooms are fitted up. The elements tend to make the sod one mass rather than to dissipate and crumble it. An ordinary house built of this material will last five years."

A TRUE TALE

Of the Lost Gunsight Silver Mine of Southern California.

"Every one has heard tales of the many lost mines of the West," said

Alden Thomas, of Sacramento, Cal., at the Waldorf-Astoria. "Every section of the west abounds in stories of this kind, and while many of them are but the products of fertile and fecund imaginations, others there are of actual occurrence, where mines of extraordinary richness have been located and all trace of them subsequently lost. Such a one was the 'gunsight' mine of Southern California, for which innumerable prospectors have sought in vain these many years. Its discovery was purely accidental. A party of nimrods were hunting in the country about the great Mojave desert. One of their number unfortunately knocked the sight off his rifle and in casting about for something to take its place came across some ore lying on the surface of the ground of so soft a nature as to be cut with his knife. Without thought of its possible value, and gratified only that he could thus replace the gunsight he had lost, the man manufactured the substitute, and then picked up a few of the pieces of ore so lavishly strewn about, put them in his game bag and rejoined his party at their camp. Later, on their return to civilization these few samples were assayed, and proved to be silver ore of extraordinary richness; but, alas! the finder had paid no attention to the exact locality of his discovery, and although they returned at once to that vicinity and searched the country over they could never again locate the place of discovery.

This is the tale of the famous lost gunsight mine of Southern California."

DAMAGE BY STORM SOUTH OF RACINE

Funnel Shaped Cloud Tears Up Farm Buildings and Crops—Grain Injured in North Dakota.

Racine, Wis., Aug. 21.—A funnel-shaped cloud formed near here this afternoon and moved southward. Much damage is reported from the country south of the city, where several barns were unroofed and much stock killed. The wind was followed by a steady downfall of rain for fully half an hour.

Big Storm in North Dakota.
Cognell, N. D., Aug. 21.—A heavy electrical storm passed over Sargent county. Nicholson, on the Soo road, reports twelve freight cars off the track, the depot and a windmill blown over. In this city chimneys were blown off the buildings, the depot on the Soo road was blown from the foundation, and several small buildings wrecked. Heavy damage to grain is reported by farmers.

Killed by Lightning.
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 21.—The entire lower peninsula of Michigan was swept by an electrical storm. The damage to crops is immense. From all parts of the peninsula come reports of standing grain beaten to the ground and practically ruined. The loss to farmers is heavy. Ferdinand Holtz, a young farmer, was struck by lightning near Mount Clemens and killed. The storm in Detroit swept down upon the camp which had been pitched on the boulevard for the biennial encampment of the Knights of Pythias and razed 1,000 of the 1,300 tents to the ground. Windows were broken in all parts of the city by the wind and rain, and upwards of a dozen buildings were struck by lightning.

Two Drowned in Tidewater.
Chicago, Aug. 21.—A big wave swept Lake Michigan, causing the water to recede 100 feet from some parts of the Illinois shore. The Chicago river level fell about four feet. While the tide was going out the current flowed with great velocity toward the lake, and when the lake's waters rushed back to the shore the river almost became a torrent and the current flowed in the opposite direction.

When the wave returned two deaths resulted, and a number of bathers narrowly escaped with their lives. The dead: Eugene Patterson, 25 years old, former bellboy at the Great Northern hotel; drowned at the foot of 16th street. William Rider, 15 years old; 2806 South Park avenue; drowned at the foot of 26th street.

Patterson was bathing when the water went out and was carried far out. He could not touch bottom and was powerless to save himself from being carried along. The wall of water soon came back with a roar, but the other bathers were only washed farther in shore and none was injured. Patterson's body was not found. Patterson came to Chicago from St. Louis, where he lived at 1010 Garrison avenue. Rider was fishing from a raft, which was carried out. When the big rush of water started back the craft was overturned and Rider was thrown into the lake. His body was washed on shore by the return of the tide, but life was so nearly extinct that prompt medical attention failed to save him.

Boers and Guns Captured.
London, Aug. 21.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts: "I am Hamilton captured two Krupp guns at Oliphant's neck Aug. 17. Three British were wounded. Hamilton engaged the Boers all day Aug. 19 at Roode Kopjes and Crocodile river. There were few casualties. Rundle reports that 654 Boers surrendered in the Harrismith district Aug. 19."

Cape Town, Aug. 21.—General De Wet's demand for the surrender of the British force at Comandonek is considered as a pretense for the purpose of the purpose of gaining information. Finding that Comandonek was strongly garrisoned, De Wet resumed his march northward, shadowed by Gen. Baden-Powell.

Youtsey Called for Trial.
Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 21.—When the case of Henry E. Youtsey, charged like Powers with conspiracy to murder Goebel, was called, the defendant, looking pale and weak, was brought in and took a seat by his wife and just behind his counsel. When the list of witnesses was called ex-State Treasurer Walter Day failed to respond, and on motion of the commonwealth his recognizance bond was forfeited and a forthwith attachment issued.

Engine Turns Somersault.
Chicago, Aug. 21.—By the failure of an engine and the cars following it to pass a switch on the Chicago & Western Indiana railroad at 73d street, the engine turned a complete somersault and five cars were piled upon each other. W. E. Holman, the engineer, and R. O. Wilke, the fireman, narrowly escaped death by leaping from the cab of the engine.

Deaths from Plague in Manila.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—The record of the plague in Manila for the two weeks ended July 7, as reported to the marine hospital service, is seven new cases and five deaths. Of the new cases four were Filipinos and three Chinese.

TRIPLE MURDERER IS KILLED.

Physician Shoots Neighbor, Mother-in-Law and an Officer.

Leavenworth, Kas., Aug. 21.—Dr. Arrington, in Platte county, Missouri, near East Leavenworth, shot and killed James Wallace, a wealthy farmer, during a quarrel over a line fence, and then going to the home of his mother-in-law, the widow of William Wallace, he deliberately shot her to death.

Arrington escaped in a wagon with his young daughter, but was pursued by Sheriff Dillingham and a posse. The posse came up with Arrington in a road near Farley about 10 o'clock and shots were exchanged. The murderer opened fire, shooting Dillingham in the breast and producing a fatal wound. As he fell Dillingham shot Arrington through the heart.

The murders were committed in the most cold-blooded manner. Wallace and Arrington, who were neighbors, had been at outs for some time. Wallace was greasing his buggy when Arrington approached and, without a word, fired two shots, one taking effect in Wallace's head and the other in the breast, killing him almost instantly.

Arrington then drove across the river to Leavenworth, taking his daughter with him, purchased 250 cartridges and returned to the home of Mrs. William Wallace. Arrington entered the woman's house unbidden and shot her to death before she could make an outcry. His second crime committed, Arrington climbed into his wagon and drove off. A posse was formed quickly and, headed by Sheriff Dillingham, started after the murderer.

Saturday night Arrington drove his wife away from their home by threatening to kill her. She slept in a cornfield and is still in hiding.

Heat Knocked Out Jack Frost.
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 21.—Jack Frost and Florence Isinger eloped from Franklin county, Kentucky, and went to Jeffersonville, Ind., to get married, but the heat knocked Jack Frost completely out. Miss Isinger easily withstood the heat. However, she became nervous, and as soon as Mr. Frost began to recover she insisted on returning home unmarried. The couple started for Franklin at midnight. The extreme heat affected them seriously, and when Mr. Frost and Miss Isinger ran to catch the ferry boat Mr. Frost wilted. He became very ill at Magistrate House's office, and it was necessary to provide him with a couch. An hour afterward he was ready for the marriage ceremony, but the girl said she thought it better to return home and wait for more favorable weather.

ANOTHER WAR CLOUD.

Roumania and Bulgaria Preparing for a Clash of Arms.

London, Aug. 21.—Referring to the tension between Roumania and Bulgaria, caused by the demand of the Roumanian government for the arrest of Sarafow, president of the revolutionary committee of Sofia, the Bulgarian capital, together with the suppression of that organization, the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Express says: "The Bulgarian reply to the note of Roumania has been received at Bucharest. It is couched in aggressive terms, Bulgarian troops are being constantly moved to the frontier. The Macedonian revolutionary committee has collected 1,000 volunteers, under the command of Bulgarian regular officers, and will raid Roumanian territory. Three Roumanian army corps are mobilizing. King Charles, speaking to his officers Sunday, said: 'Gentlemen, be ready for war. It can happen at any moment. You will prove yourselves worthy successors of the heroes of 1877.' Addressing the minister of foreign affairs, he said: 'Thus do the ungrateful Bulgarians repay all the blood we shed for them in 1877.' The Roumanian minister at Sofia will be immediately recalled."

FARMER KILLS FIVE.

Wholesale Murder of a Woman and Her Children.

Arlington, Minn., Aug. 21.—Between 1 and 2 a. m., Theodore Wallert, a farmer living eight miles from here, slaughtered his wife and four children with a butcher knife, and a fifth child is so badly wounded he may not recover. The children were his stepchildren, Wallert having married a widow with a family. The couple had not lived together happily and recently separated, and Mrs. Wallert is understood to have taken steps for getting a divorce. The dead are: Mrs. Sophia Wallert, aged 42; Justus Steinborn, aged 20; Helena Steinborn, aged 16; Annie Steinborn, aged 13; Reynold Steinborn, aged 10. Otto Steinborn, aged 16, is so badly injured he may not recover. Baby Teresa Osterman, 2 years old, who was visiting the family, was uninjured. After committing the crime Wallert set fire to the barns, destroying the stables with five horses and nine cows, a corncrib and a large quantity of hay. About half a mile from the house he hid his bloody clothing, where it was later discovered, and at last report was making his way toward Glencoe. Sheriff Gaffke organized a posse and is hunting for the murderer.

Wyoming Forests Burning.

Saratoga, Wyo., Aug. 21.—The forest fires continue to rage in the mountains between Battle Lake and Grand Encampment, and those towns and the numerous mining camps and sheep camps are threatened with destruction. The herders were forced to drive their flocks high up in the mountains to get feed, owing to the scarcity of both feed and water on the plains below, and it is feared that many of the herders have been surrounded, with their flocks, by the flames. It is estimated that the loss thus far, exclusive of the millions of feet of fine timber, will be over $200,000.

Anarchists Are Still Held.

New York, Aug. 21.—Moresca and Guida, the Italians, suspected of anarchy and detained by the immigration authorities, are still on the detention boat Narragansett at Ellis Island. Commissioner Fitch said that a search of Moresca's baggage had not revealed any documents of an incriminating nature. Guida begged that the letters found in his trunk and signed "Rosa" be restored to him and the request was granted.

Monument to Sergt. Floyd.

Sioux City, Iowa, Aug. 21.—The corner-stone of the monument to Sergeant Charles Floyd of the Lewis and Clark expedition was laid with imposing ceremonies. Ex-Congressman Perkins made the principal address. Congress and the state legislature have made appropriations for the monument.

Soldiers' Fun Proves Fatal.

Toledo, Ohio, Aug. 21.—Joseph, the 10-year-old son of Michael Schall of Lima, died from injuries received by being tossed in a blanket by soldiers during the encampment of the Second regiment, O. N. G., in that city. Arrests are to follow.

Workmen's Riot in France.

Paris, Aug. 21.—A serious encounter has occurred between French and Italian workmen at a bottle factory in St. Denis near Paris. The Italians used stiletos and the Frenchmen revolvers. Thirty persons were wounded.

High Water in Arizona.

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 21.—An extraordinarily heavy flood of water continues to come down from northern central Arizona, and the Salt river is still rising. There is a foot of water running over the great dams at the Arizona canal head and all irrigation canals are full. The rise is worth many hundred thousands of dollars in the Verde and Salt valleys.

Railroad Strike in Wales.

Cardiff, Wales, Aug. 21.—Owing to a strike of some 2,000 Taff Vale railroad men traffic on the railroad has been stopped and there has been some violence against volunteer workmen.

MR. BOWSER'S FARM.

ANOTHER CHAPTER CONCERNING HIS SAD EXPERIENCES THERE.

But, though the worthy gentleman is sorely vexed in mind and bruised in body, he stoutly declines to go home.

(Copyright, 1900, by C. B. Lewis.)

When Mr. Bowser had seen the coat-tails of Dusty Bill disappear around a bend in the highway and had watched the rising sun until assured it could take care of itself, he went in to breakfast. He found Mrs. Bowser looking very homesick, and the cook had her chin in the air and a frown on her face.

"Are we going home today?" hesitatingly queried Mrs. Bowser after a bit.

"Yes, that's what I want to know," added the cook.

"Going home?" repeated Mr. Bowser in tones of astonishment. "Of course we are not going home today. We have leased a summer farm for three months. We only arrived here yesterday evening. You women must be losing your senses!"

"But this awful, awful place!" protested Mrs. Bowser as the tears came to her eyes.

"There's nothing awful about it. It's a farm. There are a few weeds and thistles around, but every farm has 'em. We came out for the pure air, the peace and quietness. We were disturbed last night by a tramp, a dog and an owl, but it won't happen again. We'll have provisions here today, and apex and escape the horn, but for two long hours the ox stood guard below and kept him up there. The two hours might have been four had not a tramp, who was looking for a turnip patch, entered the field and driven the creature away.

"What you doin out here in de country?" he asked as Mr. Bowser came down.

"Taking a vacation," was the reply.

"Rented de farm?"

"Yes."

"Got de family out?"

"Yes."

"Wall, cully, I've long wanted to meet de biggest fool in 'de world, and I guess I'm lookin at him now. A man who'll come out to a ranch like dis fur a vacation has either got sawdust in his head or is hidin from de cops. Dat ox must hev took you fur a cabbage head."

"You will keep your opinions to yourself, sir!" stillly replied Mr. Bowser, "but here's a quarter for driving that brute off and releasing me."

"Thanks, cully. Don't you want to live a hand by de month?"

"What for?"

"To help you enjoy de landscape and keep de butterflies from stealin your hat!"

When the tramp had gone, Mr. Bowser busied himself for half an hour in throwing stones at the one horned ox, which had retired to a distance and seemed to be plunged in meditation. He could hit him every time, but the stones gave forth a hollow sound and were totally disregarded, and the sport was abandoned after a time for a closer investigation of that bumble-

BOWSER ON THE RUN.

I'll cut down the weeds around the house, and before another 24 hours you'll be thankful that I brought you out. Ah, but do you get the scent of that new mown hay coming through the windows?"

"It's the water in the cellar you smell," said Mrs. Bowser.

"And there's rats down there as big as a barrel," added the cook.

Mr. Bowser had finished his breakfast of sandwiches and pickles. He shored back, and, standing before Mrs. Bowser, he said:

"Woman, I want no more howling! If you want to go back to the city and burn and roast and shrivel and become a mummy, I have no objections, and you can take the cook with you; but, as for me, I stay. I have already gained five pounds. For the first time in ten years I can breathe through my nose. In a week longer, with these gorgeous sunrises and sunsets and sweet scented zephyrs, I shall be hog fat and on my way to live a hundred years. I am now going forth to inspect our domain."

There was no more to be said. Mr. Bowser had put his foot in it and would have given a good deal to have been able to back out of the affair and save his pride and dignity, but as there was no show to do so he must go ahead. He clapped his hat on and started out for a walk. It was a farm which was under mortgage instead of under cultivation. The fences were down, the outbuildings in ruin, and the fields were overgrown.

"I ought to be kicked for coming out here," he admitted to himself as he stood and gazed over the landscape, "but I'll try and hang on for three or four days more at the least. By George, but that's a singular insect! That must be what they call a bumblebee. It's either a bumblebee or a humming bird."

It was a bumblebee. He was large and solid of frame, and the pure air of the country had given him a feeling of independence. He wasn't sailing about as if he had all the week to get there and back, and Mr. Bowser followed and tried to knock him out with his hat. The chase led to an old meadow, and with a drone of defiance the bee disappeared in a big bunch of grass.

"Where there's bees there's honey," mused Mr. Bowser as he stood and gazed at the spot. "I don't remember whether Brown said there was any honey on the farm or not, but if I come across a painful I'll be so much ahead of the game."

He had started to investigate when his attention was attracted to the bovine they had seen in a field the previous night. He had told Mrs. Bowser it was probably a new milk cow, but now he discovered that it was an ancient looking one horned ox. The animal was hardly more than a living skeleton and had evidently been turned out to shift for itself, but it had more curiosity than flesh. Seeing Mr. Bowser in the field, it came shambling along to make a closer acquaintance. He picked up a stick to drive it away, but the ox seemed to be without fear. Lowering its head and uttering a loud bellow it dashed for Farmer Bowser, and he turned and fled for an old strawstack not far away. He reached it far enough ahead to climb to the bee's nest. The only way to find a nest in the grass is to look for it. Mr. Bowser advanced as bold as a lion and began to paw at the grass. He presently heard a sound like a child's rattle box, but gave it no attention until about 200 overgrown and aggressive bumblebees suddenly flew up out of the grass and sailed into him. He did not believe they were in earnest until he felt a red-hot darning needle enter the calf of his left leg. Before he could open his mouth to yell, the right leg was served the same way.

"Murder! Thieves! Police!" shouted Mr. Bowser as he danced around and the bees continued to "lift" him, and it was not until he got a sting on the chin that he started for the house.

The bees followed him. A bumblebee never lets go of a good thing. They had a good thing in Mr. Bowser. His yells were heard at the house, and long before he got there he saw Mrs.

Bowser in the door and the cook looking over her shoulder. As he came up on the gallop, his ears working and his eyes bulging, Mrs. Bowser cried out for an explanation. He didn't pause to give it, however. He made a half circuit of the house and plunged into an acre of burdocks and thistles and pigweeds, and there the bees left him. He was lying on his back and panting for breath when Mrs. Bowser appeared and exclaimed:

"For heaven's sake, but what is the matter with you? What was all this running about?"

Then she caught a sight of Mr. Bowser's face. There was a lump on his chin, a second under his left eye, two on his neck and one on his forehead, and about 40 more which she couldn't see, but which felt as big as washtubs to him.

"Now you'll start for home, won't you?" she asked as he tried to sit up and groaned like a dying horse.

"Never, woman—never on the face of this earth!" he shouted as he fell back among the weeds.

A SUCCESSFUL COMPOSER.

A California Woman Whose Musical Compositions Are Popular.

Mrs. Josephine Gro has come to the front recently as a musical composer. Her stirring anthem "Hail California!"

Women Lawyers' Club.

The Women Lawyers' club organized in New York city a year ago for the purpose of "advancing the interests of all women of the bar and to promote social intercourse among its members" has flourished and now has 20 members, ten of whom are either practicing independently in New York city or are attached to some department in large law offices. The remaining ten are similarly engaged in New Jersey and Connecticut. The officers elected to serve the ensuing year are: President, Miss Rosalie Loew; vice president, Mrs. Philip Carpenter; treasurer and secretary, Miss Edith J. Griswold, 220 Broadway; corresponding secretary, Miss Gail Laughlin. These, with Mrs. Louise Fowler Gignoux, form the executive committee. The chairman of the membership committee is Miss Mary G. Potter. The club has disbanded for the summer, but will resume its meetings in September. It will probably retain its old quarters, 19 West Forty-second street. A programme of papers and discussions will be presented at the meetings, which will be held monthly as formerly. The club will give one public meeting next winter, to which nonclub members will be invited. Heretofore the meetings have been attended only by members.

Boots for Women.

Manish attire for women demands some innovations, which those who enter to public needs have not supplied amply for Brooklyn. At least this is the verdict of a Brooklyn girl in regard to the problem of women's "boot-blacks."

A few days ago, when it was noised abroad that two women had gone into the "shoe" business down town in New York, a girl on this side the river said: "That is just what should be undertaken in Brooklyn, a bootblack stand conducted by women for women, exclusively. In these days of manish shoes such a place is greatly needed in the shopping center. To be sure, the large dry goods houses polish shoes for their patrons without money and without price, but women much prefer to go where they can pay for this service. I feel that there is a need for such an undertaking here, and I believe there would be money in it for the pioneer."—Brooklyn Citizen.

Women's Stock Company.

The remarkable discoveries of all which have so excited Californians have reached the women of the Pacific slope, and a stock company has just been incorporated under the laws of the territory of Arizona. The project of the enterprise, which includes among its officers and directors some of the best known business women of California, is Mrs. Dolzella Aldrich, who fills the dual office of secretary and treasurer. The officers of the company are all women, save the salaried engineer. None of the officials is salaried, the management deciding to devote its time gratuitously to advancing the interests of the company, applying all funds received from sales of stock directly to development.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Nursery Thermometer.

If you want to take a child's temperature to see if he is feverish, first shake the thermometer till the index is below the arrow mark, then put the bulb end well up under the little one's armpit against the skin, and hold his arm close down to his side for five minutes. The top of the index will then mark the temperature.

The proper temperature is 98.4 degrees F. A degree above this indicates considerable inflammation. Be sure and see that the quicksilver is below 98 degrees before using it, or you may be alarmed unnecessarily.

Blond or Brunette?

Why is it that the villainess in melodrama is invariably a brunette of deepest dye, so to speak? The history of the world teaches that the women who have wrought most havoc have been blonds. Helen of Troy, Poppaea, Cleopatra, fair Rosamond—all are said by tradition to have had golden or red hair. And now comes a Frenchman, Gaston Deschamps of the Figaro, to insinuate that Eve was a blond. If dramatic authors wish to preserve the eternal unities, they will henceforth make all adventuresses blond.

PAINFUL PREDICAMENT.

Woman Held a Prisoner by Her Sewing Machine.

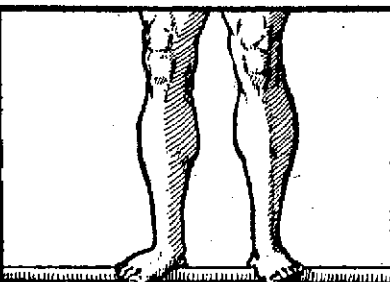

Pinned down to a sewing machine by a needle, held helplessly there for two agonizing hours by a tiny shaft of steel that, piercing her finger and becoming bent in the process, refused to be extricated—such was the singular and unfortunate accident that recently befell Mrs. E. A. Whale, of Stockton, says the San Francisco Examiner. Mrs. Whale was engaged with her afternoon sewing when the needle of the machine at which she sat was inadvertently driven through her finger. Ordinarily this would have merely meant the presence of mind to reverse the wheel and thus release the finger, but this was not an ordinary accident. The needle had suddenly bent when it passed through the bone, and bent in such a way that to withdraw it was an impossibility without surgical aid. Every woman who reads this will realize the peculiar torture of Mrs. Whale's predicament when it is stated that she was quite alone in the house, and every woman who reads this will likewise take unto herself a warning not to give her own sewing machine needle a chance to inflict such torture upon herself. It lacked two hours of the time when her little girl should return from school. "Surely I cannot endure the situation until then," was Mrs. Whale's thought, and she tried again and again to loosen the cruel grasp of the bent bit of steel, but in vain. Finally she abandoned the effort and waited, with what patience can be imagined, for the moments to drag by. Twice the hands of the clock marked the hour before Mrs. Whale's little daughter came. Then the neighbors were notified, and Mr. Whale was summoned from his place of business down town. With all possible speed he drove to his residence. The machine was taken apart as gently as it could be done, and the imprisoned lady released. After that a surgeon extracted the refractory needle and dressed the wound.

Paderewski's Bride.

At the age of 27 Paderewski was in Paris—whither seem to go all poor musicians, not when they die, but when they struggle to live. He confesses that he was miserably poor, that he owed much, that the future seemed to have nothing for him. But the day came when he met a Polish princess, who was so impressed with his powers that she offered him the sum of 100 francs to play at her house. Unable to indulge in the luxury of a carriage, he walked there and played. At the end of the performance his hostess, observing the young man's fatigue (he was probably in those days more at home in the cafe where the fragrant cup at three sous, of which Alphonse Daudet speaks lovingly, was vended), offered to send him home in her carriage. But with pride in his eyes, and defiance in his mien, the pianist declined. "Madame," said he, "my carriage is at the door." And with that he walked out. Such an attitude was one to win a woman's sympathy. His new patroness was delighted both with his marvelous gifts and his graceful bearing. She spoke of him in the salons. Engagements began to come swiftly. In a few years his name was ringing through the city. And from that time he never looked back.—Golden Penny.

Baden-Powell's Feminine Tastes.

Gen. Baden-Powell, the hero of Mafeking, seems to be a man of peculiarities. Among other things, it appears that he is possessed of a good many feminine tastes. He played with dolls when he was a boy, and was fond of making clothes for them after his nurse had cut them out. It is said that he did the work beautifully. The general is still an excellent cook, and considers such knowledge most valuable and even necessary to a soldier.
